[BOYS ARE SITTING ON A PIER – GETTING READY TO FISH]

MIKE: How do you suppose the world was created?

JOE: There was a BIG BANG [DRAMATIC CLAPPING HANDS] and everything just happened.

[THEY PICK UP THEIR FISHING POLES AS THEY CONTINUE TO TALK]

MIKE: Everything just fell into perfect order huh?

JOE: Sure, why not?

MIKE: Because it's impossible. That's why. At church I learned the world was created by God in six days.

JOE: And that makes more sense to you?

MIKE: Of course. Everything works together too well for it all to be an accident.

JOE: Have you ever seen God? How do you even know He exists?

MIKE: Have you ever seen air or gravity?

JOE: Well, no.

MIKE: Then, how do you know they exist?

JOE: Well, I can breathe so I know there is air and I'm not floating so I know there is gravity?

MIKE: I know there is a God because I see His work in everything around us. It's an Intelligent Design.

JOE: Intelligent Design huh?

MIKE: Yeah. By a divine architect.

JOE: What about mother nature? Is that God's wife?

MIKE: There is no Mother Nature in the Bible. Everything was created by God.

JOE: Maybe I should go to church with you to learn more about God.

MIKE: Maybe you should. It's the best way to get your questions answered.

JOE: Yeah. I have a lot of questions.

MIKE: All the answers are in the book.

JOE: What book?

MIKE: The Holy Bible. Do you have one?

JOE: No.

MIKE: They even have one that's like a comic book. So, guess what you're getting for your birthday?

JOE: Thanks for spoiling the surprise.

[BOYS SHOVE EACH OTHER PLAYFULLY AS THEY CONTINUE FISHING]
